Dear youth panel member,

We appreciate your continuous participation in the Korea Youth Panel Survey (KYPS). A panel survey requires the participation of the same respondents year after year. Therefore, before you start to answer the questions, we will check if you are indeed one of the youth panel from last year.

The content of this year's questionnaire is very similar to that of last year. We request that you read each question carefully and answer them honestly and accurately. All of your responses will be kept confidential in compliance with the Statistics Law. Thank you very much for your cooperation.

2008. 11.

<Questions for Respondent Selection>

Q) Is this the residence of ○○○(youth panel's name)? May I ask if you are the guardian of ○○○ ?

Q) (If it is not the guardian) May I talk to the guardians of ○○○?

Q) (If the youth's guardian is not home) When can I reach him or her? I will call again at that time.

Name of the respondent	Relation to the youth

Hello? This is ○○○, an interviewer from Media Research, a specialized organization for opinion polls. We are conducting a Korea Youth Panel Survey (KYPS) for the National Youth Policy Institute, a government-funded research institute under the direction of the Office of the Prime Minister.

We would like to thank you for you and your child for participating in this survey last year.

The reason I calling you today is that I would like to ask you a few questions your child may not answer properly.

All the information you provide will be kept confidential under the 33th Article of the Statistics Law. We will appreciate your cooperation.

Reason for having failed the survey
